STAT

I was delighted to hear from John McMahon that you have agreed to take on the Chairmanship of our Science and Technology Advisory Panel (STAP) for a three-year tour beginning this September.

As you know, the Intelligence Community Staff will provide you whatever administrative support you will need. For a substantive frame of reference, however, you should continue to stay in close touch with Julian Nall, our NIO for Science and Technology.

I think the ideas you mentioned to John for tapping specialists on an ad hoc basis to bring needed expertise to small STAP working groups have considerable merit. I would welcome any other recommendations you might have.

Sincerely,

WJ William J. Casey
